AI Scientific Talks

Padua - 4 May 2021 - 4.00 pm (Italian time)

The U.S. has been pioneering the integration of AI within the judicial process. Its experience so far has proven that using AI in adjudication can be both an opportunity and a threat. To what extent judges should use AI, and for which purposes? The Seminar will offer the perspective of a Federal Court of Appeal's judge.

Richard J. Sullivan

was sworn in as a United States Circuit Court Judge for the Second Circuit in October 2018. Before that, Judge Sullivan served for eleven years as a United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York. Prior to becoming a judge, he served as the General Counsel and Managing Director of Marsh Inc., the world's leading risk management and insurance brokerage firm. From 1994 to 2005, he served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York.

He was awarded the Henry L. Stimson Medal from the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and named the Federal Law Enforcement Association's Prosecutor of the Year. He is a graduate of Yale Law School and the College of William & Mary. He is an adjunct professor at Columbia Law School.
